NOW COMES the Plaintiff, International Watchman, Inc., and for its Complaint against the Defendant James Caird Timepieces, LLC and John Does alleges as follows:

THE PARTIES

1. The Plaintiff, International Watchman, Inc., is a corporation organized under the laws of Ohio, and has its principal place of business in Brunswick, Ohio, which is in Medina County.
2. Upon information and belief, the Defendant James Caird Timepieces LLC is a Limited Liability Company organized under the laws of the State of Virginia and operating at www.jamescairdtimepices.com.
3. The domain www.jamescairdtimepieces.com is registered to Defendant; however, on information and belief defendant knowingly provided false registrant information for the domain through the use of an anonymous proxy.

4. On information and belief, each of the Defendants, and Does 1 through 10, and each of them, were the owners, agents and/or employees of each of the remaining Defendants, and in doing the things herein alleged, were acting within the course and scope of said agency and/or employment, in that the actions of each of the Defendants as herein alleged were authorized, approved, and/or ratified by each of the other Defendants as principals and/or employers.

5. Plaintiff is ignorant of the true names and capacities of the Defendants sued herein as DOES 1 through 10, inclusive, and therefore sue these Defendants by such fictitious names. Plaintiff will amend this Complaint to allege the true names and capacities of Does 1 through 10, inclusive, when Plaintiff ascertains the identity of such Defendants. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon allege, that each of these Defendants is responsible in some manner for the acts and omissions which damaged Plaintiff, and that Plaintiff's damages as alleged herein were proximately caused by their actions or omissions.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

6. This is an action for trademark infringement for damages, injunctive relief and other relief for violations of 15 USC 1114; 15 USC 1125(a); 15 USC 1125(b); and for related claims arising under the State of Ohio's Deceptive Trade Practices Act, RC 4165.01 et seq. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendants engaged in a civil conspiracy against Plaintiff and their authorized licensees. The course, scope and furtherance of said conspiracy involved the acts and conduct hereinafter alleged.

7. The Court has jurisdiction of this action under 15 USC 1121 and 28 USC 1131, 1338 and 1367. The Court has subject matter over this matter because the Plaintiff states a claim for federal trademark infringement, 15 U.S.C. § 1125(a); §43(a) of the Lanham Act. This Court also has supplemental jurisdiction over the claims in the Complaint which arise under the statutory and common law of the State of Ohio pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1337(a), because the state law claims are so related to the federal claims that they form part of the same case or controversy and derive from a common nucleus of operative facts.

8. Venue is proper in the Northern District of Ohio pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1331(b)(2) and/or 28 U.S.C. § 1400(b) because a substantial part of the events giving rise to the claims occurred in this judicial district, the Defendant are subject to personal jurisdiction in this district, and the infringement occurred within this judicial district.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

9. Since its founding in 1986 and incorporation in 1997 Plaintiff has designed, produced, and marketed a broad line of products. These products include watches, watch parts, watch bands, watch straps, watch bracelets, deployment buckles, watch tools, loupes, case openers, screwdrivers, link removers, hand pullers, spring bars, watch boxes, watch rolls, folders, cases, and other similar products in the United States and overseas.

10. Within this areas of specialty, Plaintiff, through its brand, has become very famously well known as a supplier of watches and watchstraps sold by Plaintiff and its authorized licensees under the NATO® brand.

11. Currently, the Plaintiff sells and distributes NATO® brand products through online marketplaces, such as www.eBay.com and www.Amazon.com, through directly through distributors or under license to sell in these and other areas.

12. The Plaintiff has a federally registered mark for “NATO” Registration Number 3,907,646. (“the ‘646 mark”) (See Registration Certificate attached hereto as “Exhibit 1.”)

13. The fame and popularity of Plaintiff’s brand has led to numerous “knock-offs” and cases of infringement.

14. To date, Plaintiff has successfully enforced its rights with dozens of parties attempting to utilize the name recognition of the NATO brand for the sale of unauthorized watches or watch bands.

15. In addition to the NATO® brand achieving the status incontestable as provided under 15 U.S.C. 1062, the NATO® brand has been acknowledged by many in the field as being valid and non-generic.

16. Plaintiff is currently asserting that Defendant has infringed and is infringing Plaintiff's federally registered trademark.

17. The Defendant has unfairly misused Plaintiff's registered mark by the use of "NATO" in connection with their infringing business services, namely, the use of "NATO" in the advertising describing their watchbands, including at www.jamescairdtimepieces.com (See Exhibit 2) and with keywords at Google search engines and tags throughout social media, including at Instagram and Facebook (See Exhibit 3).

18. On information and belief, Defendant intends to sell at least $38,000 in watches through www.kickstarter.com (see Exhibit 4) in which all of their models "come on a nylon NATO strap" and can be upgraded "to an additional brown leather strap on the navy polished for only a few dollars more".

19. Defendants' previous Kickstarter campaigns, which placed much less emphasis on using NATO straps was unsuccessful. (See Exhibit 5).

20. The Defendants' intended use of the NATO Straps name is colorable imitation of Plaintiff's "NATO" mark, and cause confusion in the marketplace.

21. Defendants numerous uses of the feature "NATO Strap" throughout their product offerings and the advertisement and marketing of the same results in confusion by their customers of the source of supply of their watchstraps and/or otherwise causes confusion or dilution in the marketplace.

22. Such confusion and/or dilution becomes engrained, iterative and self-perpetuating within the internet, causing further confusion and/or dilution ad infinitum.

23. The Defendants were not and are not authorized by the Plaintiff in any way to use the Plaintiff's federally registered marks.

24. The Plaintiff is entitled to an award of damages against all Defendants for trademark infringement.
